

2nd February 2012

Run Number 196 Starting at the Augustus John, Liverpool University

The Pack: Snoozanne, Madhatter, Alternative Entrance, Carthief, FCUK, Compo, 10", ET (Hare), Toy Boy.

It was real winter temperatures as we gathered inside the Augustus John with FCUK seemingly greeting every other person in the place as one of his students. (French always was a laid back faculty).

10" posed as a car to fool the barriers for additional parking.

Gathering the pack and our breath against the cold we posed outside with Megapixel ET taking the official flash

The start was a little away from the pub with Toy Boy ensuring that the post stayed upright whilst the instructions were declared.

Off we went and Crown Street it was. Oxford Street followed and then a deadly

Beech, Holly and Prescot followed and then it was

Park and a

It was about this time that the Hare took pity and showed a short cut to several of the SRBs

FCUK held up his hands in acknowledgement whilst Mad Hatter hides in shame.

There was some discussion as to the pronunciation and meaning of the name

It reminds me of the joke the morning after a wild orgy of the gods and some nubile women.

A god appears before one of the women and says "I'm Thor". She replies "I am so thore that I can hardly pith".

Back at the cars and Snoozanne had first remembered the date and then produced haggis and even vegetarian haggis together with the necessary sauce.

This was quickly demolished

The circle formed and in the absence of a recognizable RA the democratic version took over.

The Hare

FCUK for forgetting to bring his car park card.

10" for pretending to be a car in lieu of a second parking card.

Toy Boy, FCUK, Compo, Mad Hatter for shortcutting.

Mad Hatter for going past a chip shop.

The cold got to us and we retired to the Augustus John where the AGM took place.
