

ERSEY THIRSTDAYS HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

16th August 2012

Run Number 214

Starting at Ship and Mitre, Liverpool

The Pack Carthief, Compo; Snoozanne; Mad Hatter; 10", Tia Maria, Alternative Entrance(Hare) , Hansel, OTT, Grutel, Peter Pong, ET, Compass, Very Grimm.

Meeting up in the pub (this gets earlier and earlier) a sort of Hash Flash was tried

One hasher, having her back to the camera, received the individual treatment.

Once outside the result of a text message to FCUK (wandering in foreign parts) were gleefully displayed

A proper megapixel Hash Flash

The Hare hoped that the run would not be too short (or too long) and off we went.

Up Churchill Way, Trueman Way, past the

Down Tithebarn road with some of the strollers

And then back to

As with all runs in this part of Liverpool the magnet of the Mersey pulled hard and we worked our way down to the water (some faster than others)

There was quite a tail back up the hill

Onto a

There were some complaints from the less frequent MTH3 participants that this was not a Hash marking.

Past the old light ship

And onto a self imposed Regroup as we waited for the SRBs to catch up.

Some one had the idea of synchronised jumping and flashing (That is Hash Flashing) which almost worked.

Onto a Check

and then another Hash Regroup at a horse made of string

Luckily Sprog was persuaded to keep his clothes on whilst emulating the sculpture.

Tia Maria summed it up

Making our way back towards the pub a classic case of standing on the Check presented itself to Hash Flash

Onto a Regroup

At a Portuguese restaurant

A lecture from the Hare on William MacKenzie and his tomb

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/William\_Mackenzie\_\(contractor\))

and then it was a variation on the always welcome sign

All the way to the Maharaja <http://www.maharajaliverpool.co.uk/>

Where the experiment with ordering half starters and half main courses worked out well.
