

14th February 2013

Run Number 230

The Little Owl, East Countess Way, Gawer Park, Chester, CH1 4DA

Valentine red was requested as the clothing colour

The Pack: Compo, Carthief, Cleopatra (Co-Hare), Overdrive (Co-Hare), Chico, 10", FCUK, Tie One, Posh Frock, OTT, Hansel, Oskar, ET

A new style of footwear was used by our virgin Oskar who FCUK had advised that the run may be wet. Between his socks and running shoes he wore Tesco plastic bags. It was not warm either so he wore an overcoat and scarf as well (I mean during the run not just at the start).

The Hares explained the markings and it being a special day they had used special markings which were explained to the Pack. The Checks were heart-shaped and there were hold points for the FRBs

The first Check looked somewhat like a large spear through the heart (in two different dimensions)

At the first Check Oskar complained of being hot and was recommended to remove his scarf at least. As the FRBs arrived slightly ahead of the Pack there was a discussion about a Hash name for Oskar. Plastic Jonnie was mentioned amongst others but none had the je ne sais quoi required of a Hash Name and his anointment will have to wait.

The run continued past this

And then onto a Regroup (I think (delaying the writing of the Hash Trash always leaves some photographs unexplainable))

For example why does Chico have to eye through the heart as if it was a gunsight?

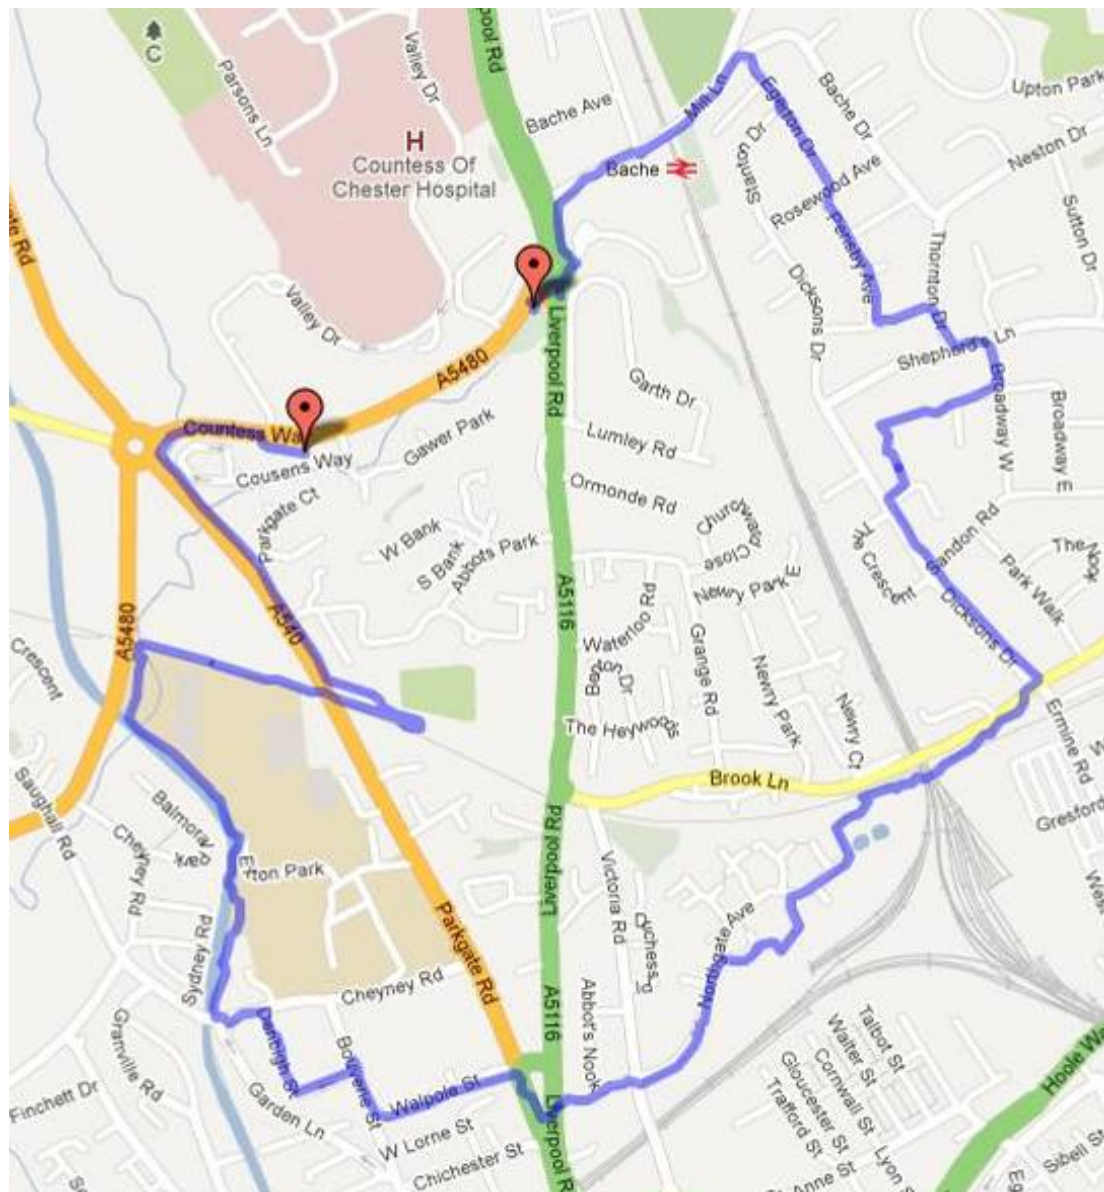

Tie One and Chico were the FRBs in the box

Chico changed his glove colours.

The run route

Back at the cars Cleopatra's offerings were quickly consumed

The RA gathered the Pack and my notes read Tooth hicfty Dentist (whatever that means) followed by too short for the Hares Down Down

FRBs Chico and Tie One

And again for the pink gloves

For not wearing red or pink Carthief, Tie One and Oskar
10" for shortcutting
Chico for promising to bring torches and leaving them in the office.
Virgin Oskar from Vienna brought along by FCUK

A joke about girls receiving flowers because they were gorgeous.

Compo and Chico for horse meat jokes

OTT for another horse meat joke

Oskar for his plastic bag feat.

We retired to the pub to gain inner and outer warmth
