

ERSEY THIRSTDAYS
HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Run Number 28: Ye Cracke, Rice Street, Liverpool.

The Pack: Bloody Bollox, RTfuct, Austin Powers, Sergeant Pecker (co-hare), Compo, Car thief, Snoozanne (co-hare).

Everybody - I'm GAY!! I'm GAY!!
Thanks for sorting me out there
Bloody Bollox, I'd suspected as much for years...

Oooh errr, on back –
it's no entry down
there – you must be going the wrong way.

Forgetful and
directionally-challenged hare Snoozanne had to take her cues from the road signs to find trail.

New shoes

Virgin Emma and knackered Compo, and over-excited to be gay Austin Powers were pleased to take a pew on the first of the art pieces visited on this cultural extravaganza of the Liverpool bi-sexual festival.

Extra hash flash from Carthief

Shortly before the gallery warden shouted 'No flash photography' MTH3 trash is proud to offer this exclusive shot of the art installation at Green Lane. We messed about in this for ages. The main events here were that Emma was pleased to find the building had a loo facility and RTfuct and Austin Powers got confused and lost trying to get out of a long, black corridor with a dead hand in it.

Across the Mersey, a big, fluorescent question mark on the side of a warehouse inspired MTH3 to their own artistic expression. Very good isn't it?

Art my arse!

This piece of art is a miniature, lumpy football pitch. A very challenging concept that really changes the lives of those who experience it and is well worth the money spent.

Carthief had to discipline Emma with a smart slap to the face as he'd never heard such filthy language...except for in the MTH3 virgin song and the MTH3 where oh where song and the....

'Down down' is an instruction for Emma to drink her beer – not for you to bend over Austin Powers! Being gay has really swamped his brain!

Don't argue with him Snoozanne – he'll only pick on you later!

He he he – very amusing Austin Powers. Yes, yes whatever you say...

A solemn moment as Snoozanne took to the sacred ice. Shortly afterwards she argued that 'Hog calling time in Nebraska' is a silly song. Quite agree – and not at all in keeping with drinking beer out of a bed-pan whilst sat on a block of ice during a high latitude winter.

Compo's epiphany

Austin Powers ended up having to drink his beer out of his NEW SHOES. Apparently though, it was better than accidentally drinking an abandoned pint glass of cold, sour, beer with lumps in it at the Wirral and Chester H3 away weekend...ewwwwhhhhhh!!!!
