

22nd January 2015

Run Number 284

The Rose and Crown, Cheapside, Liverpool

The Pack Carthief, 10", FCUK, Compo, Snoozanne, Mad Hatter, Virgin on the Ridickulous (Hare), Grutel, Wigan Pier, Leanne.

Hash Flash

and then Leanne turned up!

The Hare showed her talent in writing the Hash signs upside down

Final effect

The Hare was slightly worried about some of her Checks being vandalized so carefully hid them

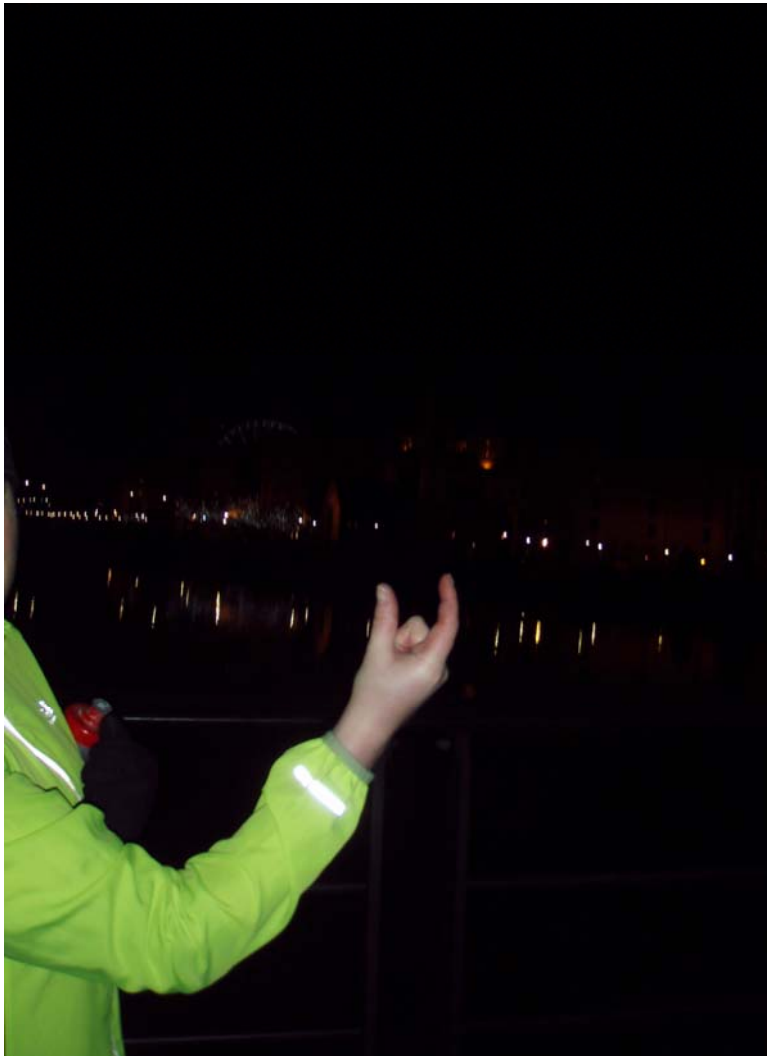

Under bushes

Inside barriers

Down to Albert Dock where the Hare indicated the thickness of the Pump House chimney

View in daylight

This was followed by a visit to Billy Fury's statue

In daylight

The hash's efforts at imitation

Some posing

A

And into the

For some inner lubrication and warmth.

A quick look at Compo's motto

And then back into Liverpool proper where “standing on a Check is taken to new heights (lows?)

Finally the welcome

Back at the pub and cars the artistry of the Hare had not been obliterated by passing cars

Snoozanne produced haggis and tatties with some suitable golden gravy

The circle was called

The Hare for the run

Wigan Pier for seeing visions on the run

Leanne for losing her bandana (it was around her neck all the time (my memory may be slightly faulty (more than normal?)).

Returnees Leanne, Grutel

Snoozanne for Hansel (hmmm not much idea what that means).

The Rose and Crown had advertised decent beers but these were not available so we retired to the Ship and Mitre
