

CHESHIRE THIRSTDAYS
HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

23rd July 2015

Run Number 297

The OC Bar 28 Bridle Road, Bromborough, CH62 6AR

The Pack Carthief, Compo (Hare), Snoozanne, Mad Hatter, Alternative Entrance, Cleopatra, Overdrive, Sticky Rice

The Hare's description from the reminder email was cryptic Compo's (pre) Memorial run and Wake (up call)

Despite being midsummer the weather can be deduced from the Hash Flash

After leaving the OC bar the Pack followed the Trail along Bridle Road with the route through the nursery school beckoning but the cunning Hare had set the trail in the opposite direction along into

where we ran a gauntlet

Onto a Check Back and onto the playing fields where Snoozanne chose to shortcut

Across Bridle Road again and into more playing fields

Out onto New Chester Road (NCR) and a

Some standard trickery from the Hare where we thought that we would staying on the west side of the NCR

But no it was across the road and into Eastham and heading north.

A right turn along a dead end but the Hare said that as he had set the trail we may as well follow it up to the dead end and he was not going to waste the flour.

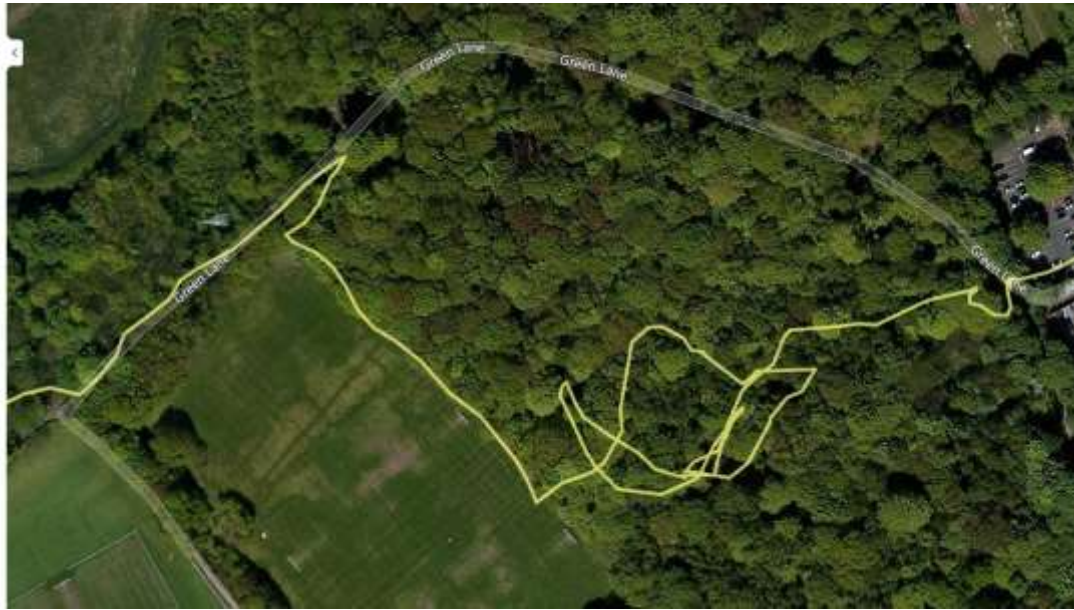

Back along the dead end and onto a double R

Into the Memorial garden and up to Compo's deComposing location.

Up through the woods with the Hare losing his way. Look at his GPS track!

Across the fields to the roller

And finally the

Back at the OC Club, Snoozanne quickly dispensed the food and the RA called the circle to order.

The Hare for the run. Not enough shiggy and too many trees were the general verdict. He was also accused of losing the plot but whether that was of grave concern or just losing himself in the trees was not obvious.

Alternative Entrance – Returnee.

Mad Hatter – dereliction of duty (No chips)

We retired inside to replenish lost fluids.
