

ERSEY THIRSTDAYS HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

17th March 2016

Run Number 314 π

Shenanigans

Compo (Hare), Carthief, Snoozanne, FCUK, Mad Hatter, Hansel, Cleopatra, Virgin-on-the Ridiculous, Max, Rebecca

Not quite sure why a photo of the Hare holding FCUK's bicycle is noteworthy but

Just realised we are on run No. 3.14. Did we miss a trick here? Should we have gone to Pi. Never mind we can always go there on Run 3141.

The bar was heaving as we gathered for the pre-run lubrication session and several of the latecomers had to run without.

This was a classic Compo run, first find the pub, then work out a theme and finally set a devious run with well thought out and sometimes long falsies.

Straight down Tithebarn and a Hash Flash

Streetview

As normal with Compo there was a Regroup at a memorial. This time it was to a wartime bombing raid in Blackstock Gardens

Some themed streets followed

Past the Titanic Hotel (SS Titanic was built in Belfast)

Over the Kingsway tunnel and onto the bicycles with Max and Rebecca imitating the film Titanic

Along the canal with a challenge to the Hare (this relates to an incident in Run 102 where Compo was defeated by a gap (click on embedded file))

Some more devious Checks, false trails and a hole in the wall

The Pack was drawn to the lookout

Leaving the waterfront the Hare led us to his chosen Pub Stop Molly Malone's but it would have taken us half an hour just to get to the bar so we abandoned that with Compo frantically trying to find Je Suis Leanne's phone number as she was hoping to join us in the pub.

A variation on the theme.

Arriving back at the cars, we found that Shenanigans had a lock-in.

Virgin on the Ridickulous had produced enough food and just about stopped short of flagellating herself for not being able to supply cake.

Down Downs were awarded to:

The Hare

Rebecca the Virgin

Returnees Cleopatra and Virgin on the Ridickulous.

We retired to the Lion pub which we suspected would not be heaving (given the name) and we had half the pub to ourselves.
