Run Number 339

Augustus John and Cathedral crypt

Compo, Carthief, Snoozanne, FCUK, Mad Hatter, Hansel, Cleopatra, Overdrive, CYKR (Hare), ET, Victim, Grutel, Wigan Pier, Bimbo, Olaf (arrived too late for the Flash)

Virgin-on-the Ridiculous, Je Suis Leanne plus others turned up at the crypt presumably with an adequate excuse for missing the run.

The initial Hash Flash taken at 19:02

Immediately afterwards an addition to the Pack arrived

A second hash Flash ensued

In a post run commentary FCUK remarked on the vast distances that drew the Pack to the start. Hansel setting off at 3:30 pm in the bus from Hawarden! Olaf from Manchester getting into a mega-jam and still managing to join us, Carthief and WP from Golborne, Grutel from Warrington, Cleo and Overdrive from Chester, Snoozanne and Mad Hatter from the tip of the Wirral. Who comes last? ET who lives 300 metres away! Breast Stroke who lives 1km away did not turn up at all!

Following Auntie Cyclone's enactment of what he thought of his run (run 338) there was a thought that CYKR would continue the tradition but with hindsight it was probably just as well that he did not! (see below for further enlightenment).

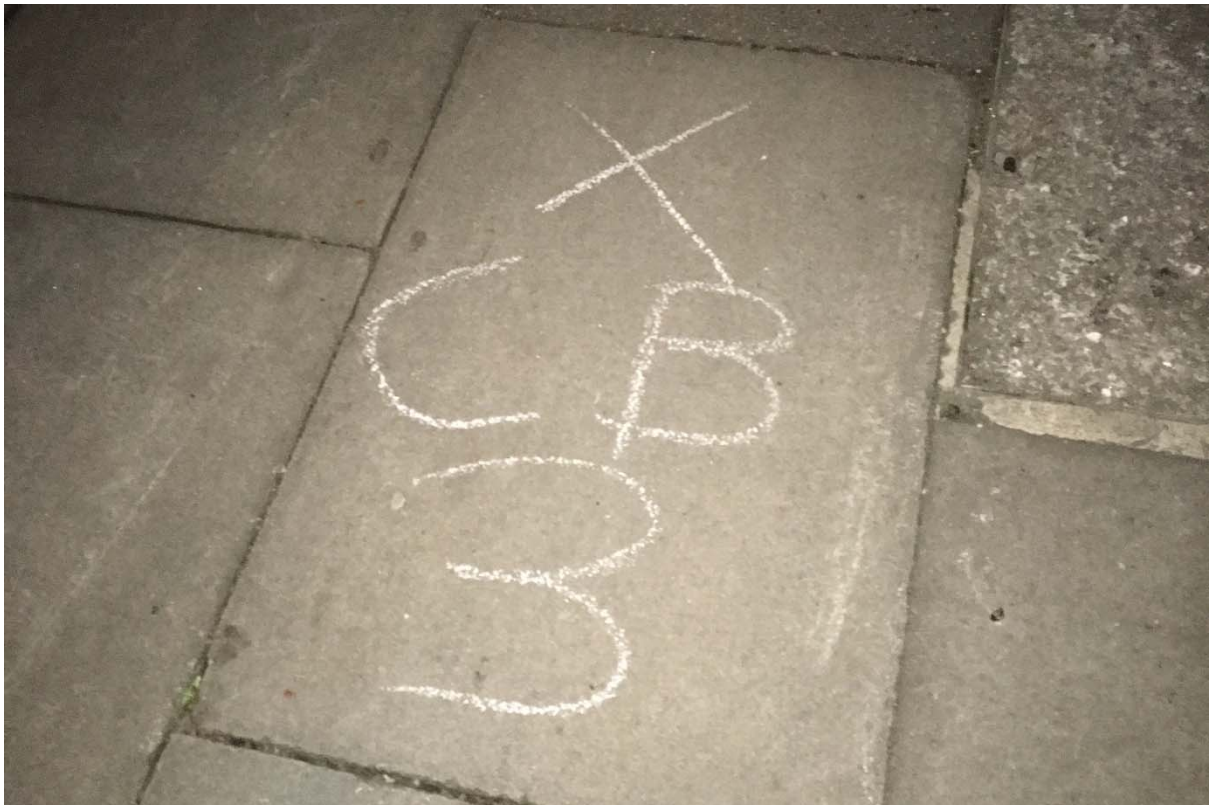

The run started and Compo almost immediately found a Regroup left over from his run earlier in the year

The trail was full of Checks,

Check backs

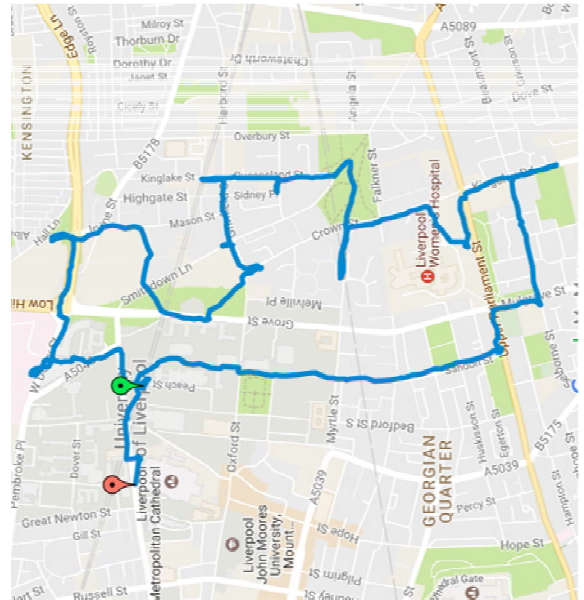

and Regroups

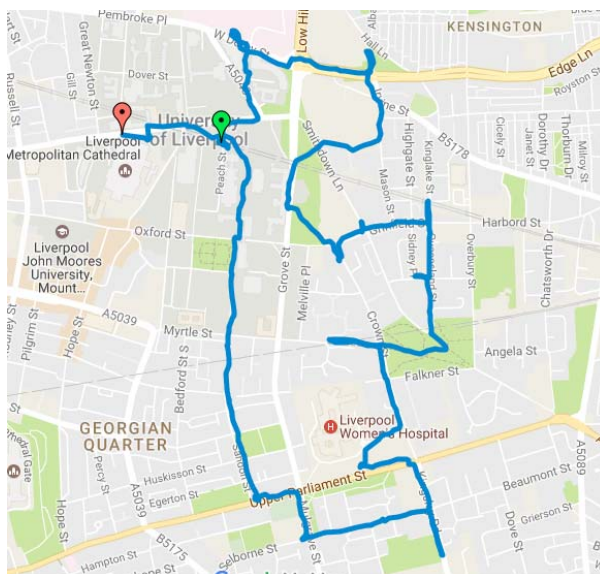

just as it should be so we all enjoyed the run although there was a fair amount of Walkie-Talkie. Luckily for the W-Ts there was no circle so no sin atoning.

The Hare had tried to form a four letter word in the shape of the run

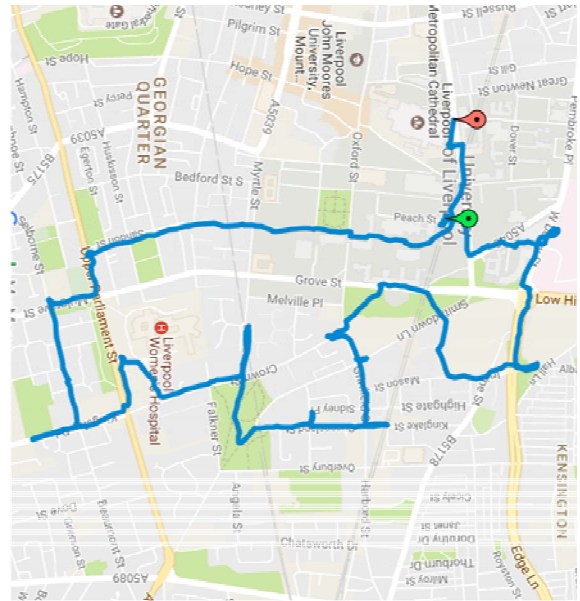

Use your fertile imagination!

Whilst Je Suis Leanne thought of a different four letter word. (Bear)

Looks more like Milou (Tintin) (Snowy in English version) to me

At the end of the run there was a rush to get to the Beer Festival with Snoozanne, Mad Hatter, Wigan Pier and Carthief retiring to the Augustus John.
