The remainder of the pack posed under the sign and having waited 11 minutes for the wayward ones (according to the time of the photograph) started on the trail with the Hare ready with flour to mark the trail for the latecomers.

The ladies managed to find this excuse for being Walkie-Talkies

Leaving Ladies Walk the trail led through a footpath

Across the Wirral Way and onto a muddy gate

The Hare pointed out the route (or was it the Welsh mountains)

The trail dodged some more shiggy

before the Pack arrived at a Check

At this point whilst resting and contemplating a pub stop

WP and Carthief ran up to join the Pack

The Hare soon dispelled the thoughts of a pub stop and the stream provided the Pack with an opportunity to demonstrate their stream crossing techniques.

On with the trail

until it dawned on us that this was a loop to the Harp Inn. Luckily for us just as we arrived the entire scooter brigade (about 20 scooter aficionados) left leaving us with almost the entire pub to ourselves

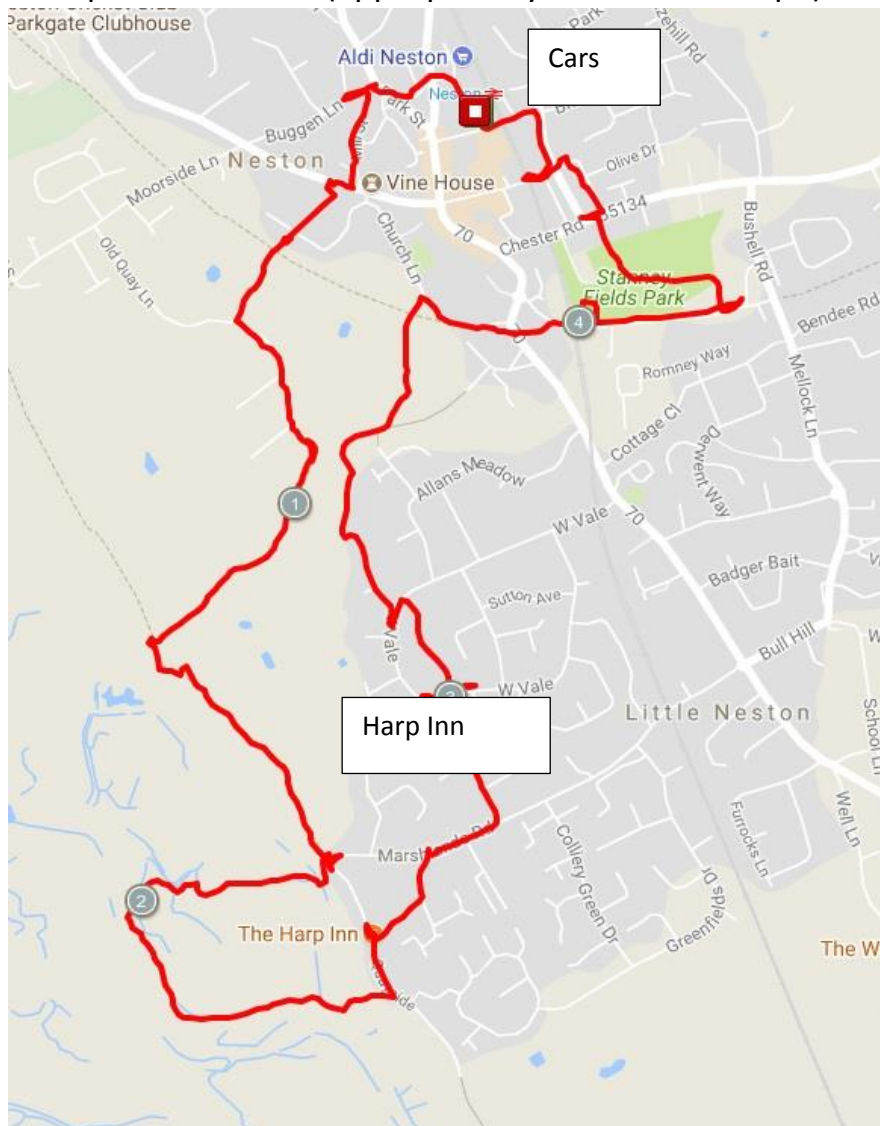

Leaving the pub we made our way back to the start which slightly unusually was quite a distance (appropriately a seahorse shape)

Cleo and OTT had prepared a feast

The circle was convened

The Hare Hansel for a run with not enough riverine and Welsh views, devoid of sunlight and shiggy etc etc (all ironic comments, NB occasional readers)

WP with CT in tow for allegedly confusing CH46 with CH64 and ending up in Meols, or something like that and then for catching up with the pack!

OTT for services to Hare transportation.

Hansel for leaving £20 under the table in the Harp Inn and for initially being the only Celt able to leave a harp alone, before announcing a pub stop at the abovementioned hostelry.

Hansel, FCUK, WP for watering the trail

Cleo and OTT respectively for a marvellous hash food spread and an exquisite Lemon Drizzle Cake
