

ERSEY THIRSTDAYS HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

15th November 2018

Run Number 389

Chester Glühwein run

Mill at Upton, 76 Liverpool Road, Bache, CH2 1AU

Cleopatra (co-Hare), Overdrive (co-Hare), OTT, Hansel, Carthief, Auntie Cyclone, Virgin on the Ridiculous, Snoozanne, Mad Hatter, Wigan Pier.

Joining the assembled pack in the Mill at a few minutes to 7PM it was apparent that we were going to be a little late as there were several pints of pre-lubrication to finish off. Wigan Pier even had time to order a coffee.

At 19:17 we had the Hash Flash

This was quickly followed by an explanation of the markings

The fish hook means that every hasher has to backtrack to the back of the pack.

The triangle means that if you are the FRB you have to stand on one leg until the Tail-end-Charlie has passed.

Virgin-on-the-Ridiculous and Carthief (both with dodgy legs/ knees) reckoned that they might go quicker by combining their legs

The route itself covered a lot of previously hashed ground although not necessarily in the same order. Once again I forgot to photograph the road signs to describe the route.

The fishhook duly showed up

Showing Wigan Pier to be the front runner.

Shortly after that (or possibly before) the triangle showed up which brought out the artistic side of the Hash

With Auntie Cyclone showing the officially required response to find Cleopatra's gratifying efforts with Glühwein and a non-alcoholic variety for the drivers amongst us.

We arrived at the

I think that we ate the house out of chocolate biscuits (there were several trips inside to replenish the bowls) and dipping amaretto biscuits in Glühwein was reckoned to improve the experience considerably.

Overdrive set off to mark the trail back to the pub and on the way back to the GS managed to stop and redirect the Pack onto the trail (the Pack going in completely the wrong direction). Luckily (or possibly planned) the trail back after the Glühwein was short and we spotted the Back at the pub we adjourned to the Morrisons carpark and used Auntie Cyclone's car bonnet as a table (a curious sloping choice).

Down Downs

The Hares for the run

Hansel for his (not very friendly) comment "You're suffering? I'm suffering too I am married to OTT" This followed a comment possibly by VR who had a sore leg.

Wigan Pier. Front running Bimbo

Virgin on the Ridiculous)
Snoozanne)
Mad Hatter)	Returnees
Auntie Cyclone)

Mad Hatter. For Politics. Mentioned Donald Trump
Auntie Cyclone

Virgin on the Ridiculous. For mentioning Brexit.

Auntie Cyclone. Just generally and for providing the Hash table, albeit a sloping one (the bonnet of his car)

Following the song for the Hares, Snoozanne wondered aloud what the male equivalent of dicky-dido was.

Hansel replied I have one of those, it's the difference between you and me!
Overdrive responded: Well, that's a rather long list - where to start?!?!

We retired to the pub to warm up and replace the liquid lost during the run.
