

Coronavirus Virtual “Run” Number 443

30th July 2020

Living rooms across Merseyside, North Wales, Grantham and Julich

The Pack: Carthief (Hare), Compo, Snoozanne, Mad Hatter, Eccles, Cleo, 10secs, Austin Powers, Hovercrap, VR

For once Eccles was on time, having presumably done her “milk run” earlier. Snoozanne was down South somewhere while Mad Hatter was still on the Wirral; though not much in evidence at first. There was speculation that he had gone out for chips. 10secs appeared twice, once visually and once audibly (on his phone), due to technical problems with his laptop microphone. The quiz was on names; a picture gave a clue to a Hasher but the answer could be the Hash name or “given name” or “family name”. The Hare was congratulated on his politically correct terminology, which he ascribed to his many years spent working in Hong Kong where the “given name” appeared after the “family name”.

This time VR was the one to appear late, halfway through the quiz, though she was also bearing cakes, which she was encouraged to bring to the real run next week.

Carthief then revealed the answers. The final question had asked for the connection between the previous answers. Very ingeniously, the initial letters spelt out “South Georgia”; I think a couple of people may have spotted this after a couple of hints. The scores were then collected; Cleo, AP, and Mad Hatter all had 8, Eccles, Snoozanne and 10 secs had 7 and Compo as is traditional brought up the rear with 5. It was pointed out that Snoozanne and Mad Hatter would have won (as is also traditional) if their scores were combined...

When we reconvened after the break, Mad Hatter was absent for some time, which meant that he missed the discussion on who was to be RA; quite convenient since as Deputy GM he might have been in the firing line.

By the time he reappeared, Snoozanne had been prevailed upon to do the honours, and Down Downs were awarded to:
