

MERSEY THIRSTDAYS HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Coronavirus Virtual "Run" Number 455

19th November 2020

Living rooms across Merseyside and Chester

The Pack: Carthief (Hare), Austin Powers & Hovercrap, Compo, Cleo & Overdrive, Eccles, ET, Mad Hatter & Snoozanne, Victim

Snoozanne appeared and was observed to be "doing a Hansel" as she immediately started disrobing, followed by re-robing in hash gear.

Then, tonight's drinks were presented early (not sure what ET and Hovercrap were on, sorry):

Severall hashers, as should be, on the beer.

Compo:

Overdrive:

AP: Austin Powers

Victim:

And the non-beer drinkers / teetotallers:

CT (literally tea, I assume):

Cleo. A non-alcoholic porter:

Mad Hatter & Snoozanne both on H2O:

Eccles, not on H2O but G&T:

We finally started the quiz which was similar to a previous Carthief hash, having clues to hashers hash names, given name or family name or some place in the world, not necessarily connected with hashing. Some of the clues looked familiar to a few of us but many of us still failed to get the correct answer. Part way through, a few of us started to get a inkling of the connection between the answers and the connection turned out to be the answer to the last question, worth 3 points in order to make the quiz out of 25. There were the usual desperate pleas for extra points or  $\frac{1}{2}$  points on question 11 for getting the answer Road or Bypass. Scores on the doors below (no prizes for guessing those clawing back the extra  $\frac{1}{2}$  point).

23 – Cleo & Overdrive

19  $\frac{1}{2}$  – Snoozeanne & Madhatter

16 – Eccles

16 – AP & Hovercrap

13 – ET

12  $\frac{1}{2}$  - Compo

12  $\frac{1}{2}$  - Victim

Some supplementary questions were provided by Snoozanne and others regarding news items this week:

- Which island risk of being hit by an iceberg the size of Cyprus?
- Near which Island was there a sighting of a rare blue whale?
- Which island won a competition to have an art installation placed in an uninhabited island ?

Answers to all 3 - South Georgia

There was talk about what we might be doing once lockdown ended (assuming we might be in Tier 2) including suggestions of taking flights that take off, fly around and land back at the same airport and Christmas dinner on the Mersey. A few of us reminisced about the good old fashioned booze cruise which could come back after Brexit.

We then moved on to the possibility of a run on 3rd December, hare being Compo, by pretending we're running singly or we could make individual appointments to meet Compo. Compo wasn't sure if he'd be able to carry out a reccie so it was suggested by Snoozanne that he could stand in the car park and read out a quiz instead or Aps idea of ordering a drone from Amazon and do the reccie by air.

Down downs awarded to the hare for being the hare and for suggesting Eccles was windy, Hovercrap for not wearing hash gear and people trying to squeeze out extra hash points.

As it's thanksgiving next week there was talk about when does the President pardon the turkey and it was pointed out that the president is a turkey. Eccles suggested, if we're doing a real hash in two weeks time we could put in an extra Thanksgiving hash only to find she accidentally volunteered herself set it.

There was general chit chat about Thanksgiving and Black Friday and we finally said good night.
