

ERSEY THIRSTDAYS HASH HOUSE HARRIERS

Run Number 69 23rd August 2007
The Toby Carvery, Aigburth Road, Liverpool

The Pack: Austin Powers (Hare), RTFuct, Carthief, Snoozanne, Penny Lane, Leakey Tool, Long Paws, Lilo Lil, Carless Whisper.

The pack assembled at the watering hole, although the Hare remarked that he should have mentioned the bus instead of the $\frac{3}{4}$ mile walk from the station. Lilo Lil demonstrated that she was fully conversant with driving on the continent by entering the carpark against the arrows.

The Hare gave his usual polished performance of Hash markings and said that there would be some additional instructions later as we would have forgotten by then what he had said.

The GM gave her first speech as GM by asking the question. What does one wear when one is going to San Francisco?

The answer.

This embellishment was further enhanced during the run as various gardens were raided, the end result looking a bit like this. The additional answer of "flour" only added to the effect.

The trail led down Aigburth Road and a small loop followed by a wall.

Various techniques were used including bypassing the wall altogether (after one has tried twice)

On to a Check Back and then down through Grassendale Park towards the sea and a photoshoot on the promenade.

At this point it became clear to Penny Lane why everyone looked so bulky and carried spare shirts, as the pack transformed into a pink mass, with some of us even getting the T shirts on the correct way round.

On we went up to the building site where the Hare had been warned. This led to a complicated set of instructions and a loop back to where the start of the building site.

Demonstrating our fence crossing (and sitting) techniques

It was at about this point that RTFuct's friend Mary turned up, although I never saw her and she may have been a figleaf (sorry figment) of her imagination. Anyway it sounded a hairbrained story to me.

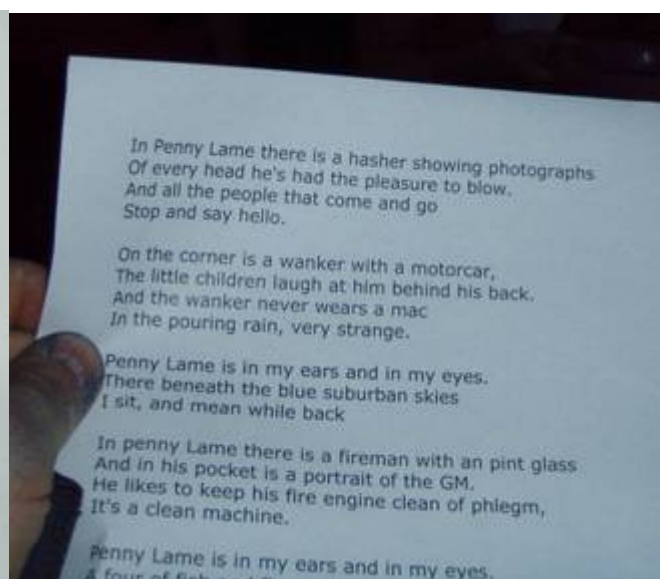

Across Garston way and into Long Lane Recreation Ground and the amazing scenes of hashers running past play areas without stopping.

A couple of streets later and we hit the Back at the cars, RTFuct had produced song sheets and with the CD playing San Francisco and Penny Lane Penny Lane was wished well to the (slightly modified) words.

The serious business of the evening got underway then with Austin Powers being rewarded for his Penny Lane last run T shirts being of a better quality than RTFuct's T shirts for his runs the previous weekend.

Carthief for arranging the flowers so nicely in Penny Lane's hair.

Long Paws for his competitive running.

Penny Lane for admitting to getting engaged in a carpark. The RA then announced a new rule that any leaving hasher had to be in at every Down-Down. RTFuct had to join in as she failed yet again to grasp the words of Do Ray Me.

Returnees Austin Powers (USA); Carless Whisper (at a dinner); Penny Lane (Ormskirk); and Lilo lil (Baltics).

Austin Powers For his "Don't go down there" instruction during run.

Penny Lane A last goodbye.

The Shitshirt was awarded to RTFuct to hide Mary.

We retired to the Gulshan, where Penny Lane flashed her Union Jack credit card, and a meal was had that was worth every penny.
