

Run 595 -The Augustus John, Liverpool, 19th Feb 2026.

Madhatter, Snoozeanne, FCUK, Piss Artist (Hare), Breaststroke (Hare), Wigan Pier, Now &Then, ET.

On Familiar turf

A few hashers had been distracted by the attractions of the beer festival at the crypt in the Metropolitan Cathedral. There was the concession of a shorter run to allow those inclined sufficient time at the festival.

Getting too comfy before the start

It was a short trail – stats indicated 0.84 miles. Checks were praised for their perfection (in being round). It appeared that they were drawn by BS but under the supervision of PA, principal artist.

There was an initial amusement as Snoozanne attempted to vacate the AJ (observed by all) via a perpetually closed fire door. The pack were unmoved by her claims that this exit had been an option previously. Nobody else had ever remembered this as being a regular alternative.

There were numerous trips on route (as it were). ET managed to maintain his composure (or so he thought) after catching his leading foot on a troublesome flagstone. Snoozanne also missed her footing on a kerbstone which was a worry after her previous ankle issues. Thankfully on both occasions both maintained upright.

The pack were led close to ET's residence and there was growing speculation, by those in the know, about a possible visit but the trail cleverly led through Myrtle Court to keep people guessing home visit was what happened though with a regroup directly outside Minster Court.

Special guests at Minster Court

All muscled into the small flat for a Chinese banquet and a tour of the estate. The hares had provided this feast in celebration of the Chinese New Year of the Horse. Thankfully horse did not feature in any of the dishes!

The menu was as followed – All freshly cooked (by PA and BS)

Pork Jerky (Cantonese)

Alizza (sweet honey Grapefruit)

Sticky rice dessert

Radish Cake

Party underway- Note the discussion garments on display.

There was much debate on the options for a commemorative 600th Run shirt as well as the dishes provided – A lot of new tastes to consider.

The 0.84 mile route - The red blob is the start.
