The Olde Red Lion - Little Sutton

The Pack: Overdrive, Now & Then, Cleopatra, Wigan Pier, FCUK, Piss Artist, ET

Limbering up before the start.

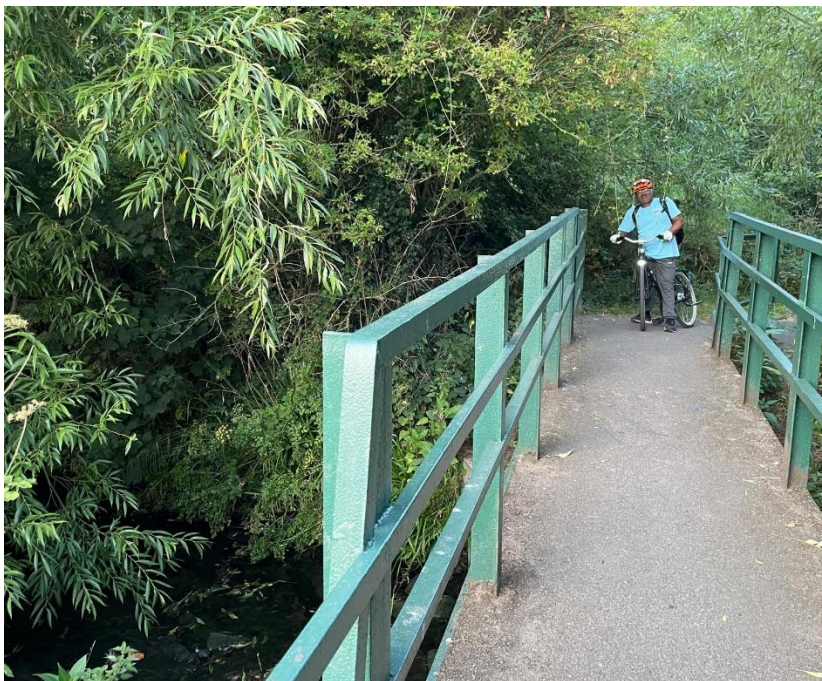

A compact group tonight. Holidays, weddings & tennis matches had taken their toll.

Panic had been created prior to the evening by PA advising that the Red Lion was permanently closed (as per Mr/Mrs Google) to the surprise of Overdrive who commented on the vibrancy of the venue the previous evening. A quick check confirmed that all was well. This a first visit by the Mersey Thirstday hash to the Red Lion – there are still plenty of pubs left to consider.

Wigan Pier made all aware of her poorly ankle and that she was going against the advice of a medical professional by attending. I think that most of us are carrying various ailments reflecting our advanced years.

A walk in the woods

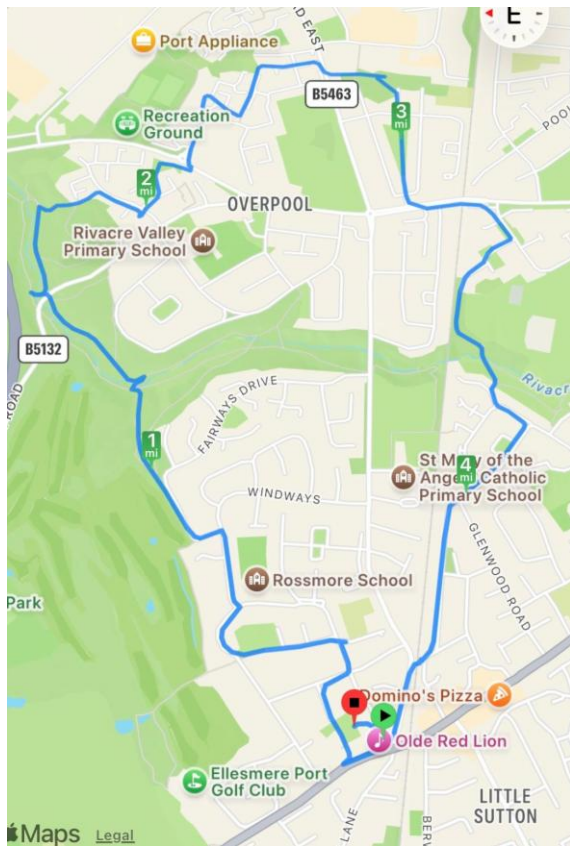

Checking for Trolls under the bridge prior to crossing

Sunset being enjoyed by all

Evening view of Little Sutton station

4.55 miles covered

Post hash feed

Tasty hash food was provided on a practical camping table which some found a challenge to erect.

Down Downs were awarded to Now & Then and Wigan Pier for being spotted watering the trail and PA for appearing disinterested.

The group then retired for a final drink in the Red Lion to review the evening.

Extra vigilance was required in securing return rail transport on the spur line to Elsmere Port – trains not being so frequent.

Warning – The consequences of being found yawning - the bed pans are back?
